

Here are the results from our recent parent survey. As you will see the results are very positive with all areas over 90% agreeing or strongly agreeing with the statements.

100% of responses agreed or strongly agreed with the following statements:

- The Catholic ethos is central to the life of the school
- My child feels safe at school
- My child is happy at school
- My child is well looked after
- My child is well taught
- I am happy with the quality of school trips
- I am comfortable to approach the school with any concerns that I have
- The school is well led and managed
- The children are well taught about the Catholic faith
- This school makes sure its pupils are well behaved
- St Edmund's is a welcoming school
- I would recommend the school to another parent

Thank you very much for taking part in the survey.
