

Light our candle. What does this represent?

*Be kind to one another,
tenderhearted,
forgiving one another,
as God in Christ
forgave you.*

[Ephesians 4:32]

What did we discuss in yesterday's lesson?

LO: to discuss how Jesus helped Levi.

SC: I can recognise the story of Levi.

SC: I can retell the story of Levi.

SC: I can say why Levi was sorry.

Today, we are going to look at a story from the Bible. We are going to discuss about how Jesus will help those who are making wrong choices.

Jesus looks for people making wrong choices; he doesn't wait for them to come to him.

Why do you think Jesus will help when people have made wrong choices?

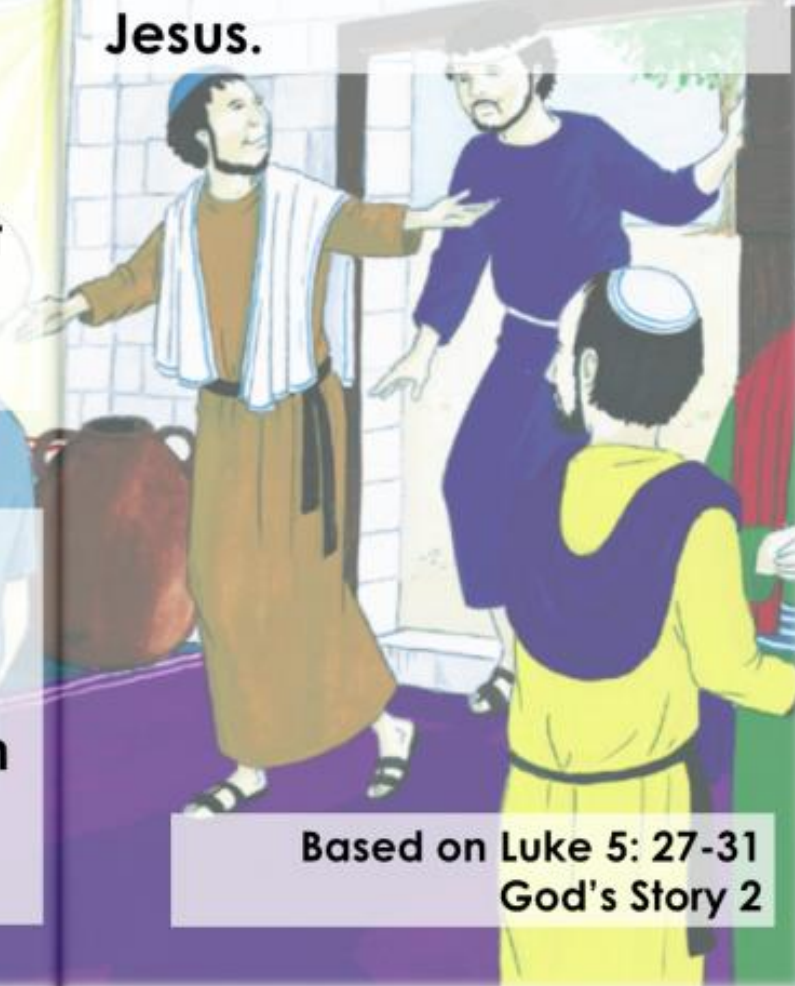

Jesus was gathering people to help him spread the Good News. He chooses those who would follow him faithfully and would be sorry for what they had done.

One day Jesus saw Levi the tax collector sitting at his table collecting people's taxes. Jesus knew Levi had not always been honest, but still he asked him to follow his way.

Levi was really pleased at Jesus' invitation and he got up and said: 'Come to my house I am going to have a big party to celebrate.'

Levi changed his ways and became a friend of Jesus.

Based on Luke 5: 27-31
God's Story 2

What was Levi's job?

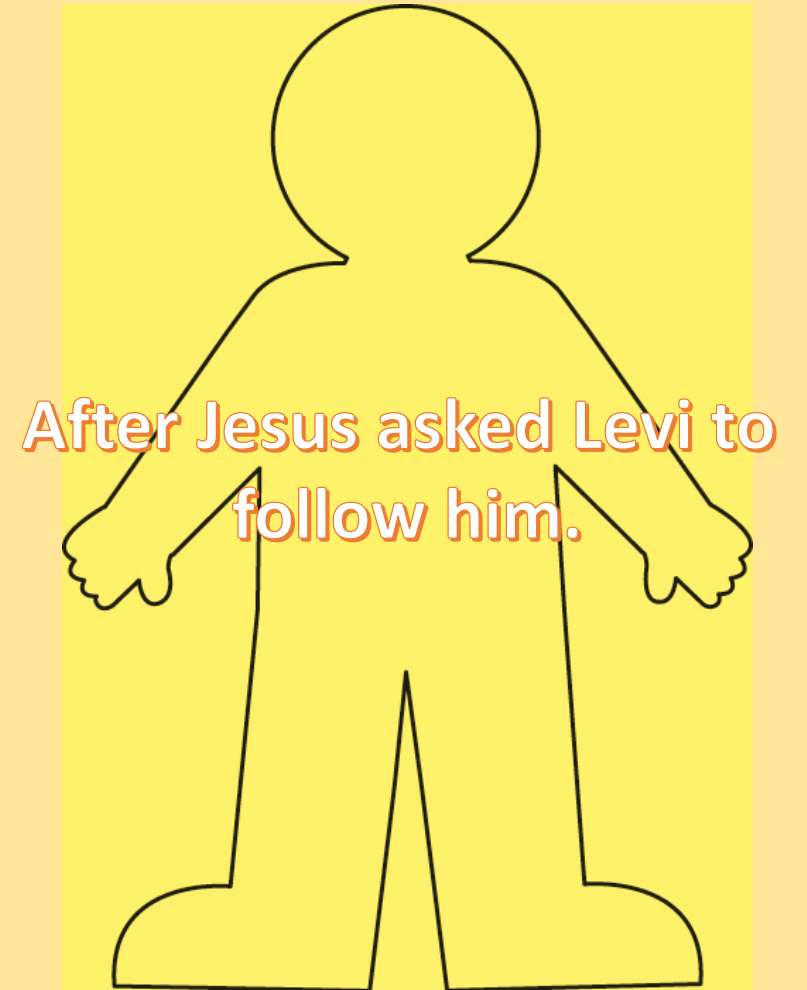

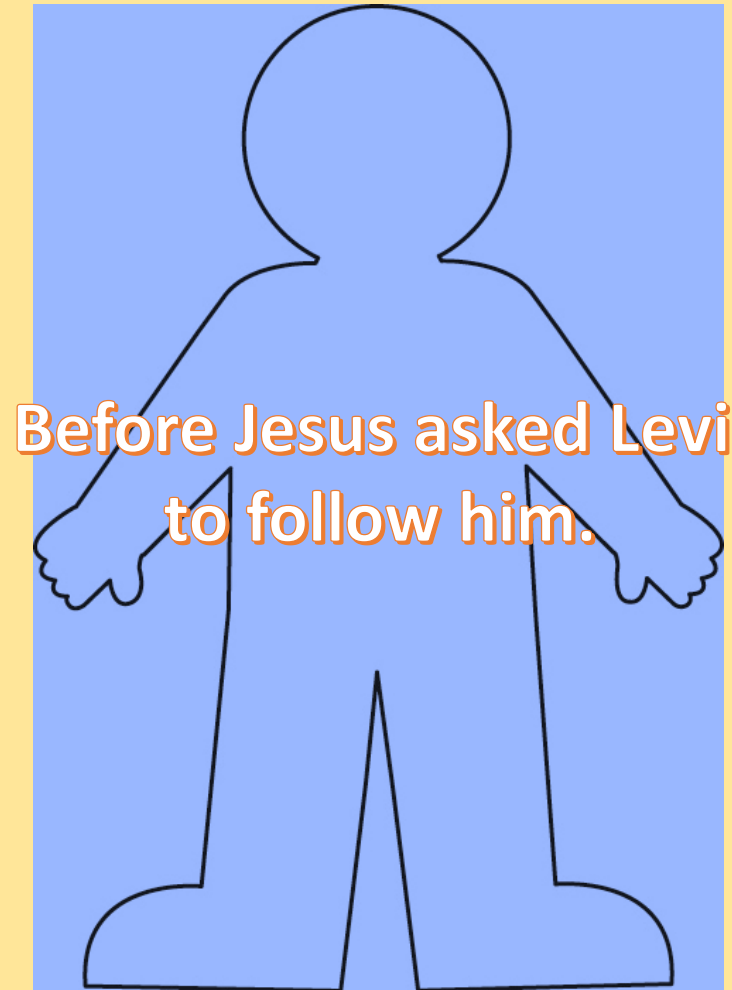

What wrong choice did he make?

What invitation did Levi give to Jesus?

What was Levi's answer to Jesus' invitation to follow him?

How do you think Levi's feelings changed? Let's do some drama.

If you are done, think about how to answer this question:

What good choices could Levi make next?

Let us write a letter to Jesus to thank him for forgiving Levi.
