Year 6 Greater Depth

Pupils can:

- write effectively for a range of purposes and audiences, selecting the appropriate form and drawing independently on what they have read as models for their own writing (e.g. literary language, characterisation, structure)
- distinguish between the language of speech and writing³ and choose the appropriate register
- exercise an assured and conscious control over levels of formality, particularly through manipulating grammar and vocabulary to achieve this
- use the range of punctuation taught at key stage 2 correctly (e.g. semi-colons, dashes, colons, hyphens) and, when necessary, use such punctuation precisely to enhance meaning and avoid ambiguity.

Greater depth for Year 1, 3, 4 and 5

A child can only be considered working at greater depth if they can apply all of the expected statements across a range of curriculum areas. To be working at greater depth, a child should show evidence of using and applying the expected targets appropriately across a range of curriculum areas. Pupils should be able to independently plan, draft and write pieces relevant to the purpose and audience and justify their reasons for grammar and vocabulary choices.

They should:

- have a strong awareness of audience;
- pay attention to the craft of writing;
- show an original style or “voice”;
- show an ability to imitate or experiment with different styles of writing;
- show an awareness of more sophisticated language and literary features and consciously use them;
- apply reading experiences to writing;
