

Wasps live in nests.

They eat fruit, nectar from flowers and other insects.

They build paper nests from eating wood and other materials.

Wasps can sting if they feel threatened.

Dragonflies have been on the earth before dinosaurs were around.

They have two sets of wings and can fly backwards and in loops.

After they hatch, they live under water for a year.

They eat smaller insects. Some will even try fish!

Bees can be found everywhere!

Bees can sting.

Bees talk to each other by dancing.

They make honey using nectar from flowers.

A fly beats its wings 200 times a second.

They can walk upside down using their sticky toe pads.

They eat plants.

Butterflies taste with their feet.

Butterflies start as eggs, then caterpillars before becoming butterflies.

They eat from flowers.

They sometimes live in trees or by water.

Snails like damp places.

They can hide in their shells.

They have four tentacles.

They eat flowers.

Spiders live in webs.

Spiders have 8 legs.

Spiders like eating small insects like flies.

Spiders have lots of eyes.

Ladybirds eat other plants and small green flies.

Lady birds fly around.

Ladybirds help farmers by eating bad insects that eat crops.

