

LO: I can retell the story of Pentecost. Stick the words onto the storyboard in the right order and draw the picture above it.

The disciples and Mary were sitting in a room in Jerusalem.	A powerful wind from heaven blew in the window.
The disciples had tongues of flames over their heads.	They all went out and spread the word of God.